Chicago's Fountains Run Green Today

NEW YORK (AP) — May the road ahead be downhill, May the wind be at your back!

Thousands of Irish, near-Irish and non-Irish march along to the skirl of bagpipes today in communities across the land to honor St. Patrick, the patron saint of Ireland.

Aside from the celebrations, it is a day of good humor, a day when jokes and wit have the flavor of green corn. In Ireland, the day has a quiet religious tone. In America, it's a time of jollity.

Chicago's Mayor Richard J. Daley had city fountains spiked with green dye. Watching the water in the civic center pool turn to an emerald hue, he said, "That's the way it ought to be all year long."

In New York, the Long Island Railroad becomes the Long Ireland Railroad. Passengers get one-day "naturalized Irish" passports.

Patrick J. Dillon, city councilman in Niagara Falls, N.Y., tried unsuccessfully last year to have the Niagara River above the falls tinted with green dye. Dillon did better this year. The American and Horseshoe Falls will be bathed in green light St. Patrick's night. Green plastic covers will be placed over spotlights that illuminate the falls from the Canadian side.

Baltimore held the annual parade Sunday. Don Davern, a member of Dail Eireann, the Irish Parliament, was one of the onlookers. Asked why he thought so many Americans wore green on "the day," Da-vern smiled and said, "every-one wants to be Irish."

Davern must be right. The faculty at Pfeiffer College, a Methodist-affiliated school in Misenheimer, N.C., decided that — just for today — it's "McPfeiffer College." The college president, Dr. J. Lem Stokes, is "J. Patrick McStokes" and Dean Hoyt Bowen is "E-an O'Bowen."

New Consular Treaty Given Senate's Okay

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate ratification of the controversial U.S.-Soviet consular treaty in effect backs President Johnson's policy of improving relations with Moscow despite the Vietnam war.

The next step is up to Moscow — and U.S. officials expected today that the Soviet president, or legislative body, would soon stamp its customary automatic ratification on the document which U.S. and Soviet negotiators signed in June 1964.

The consular convention is the first treaty ever concluded between just the United States and the Soviet Union. U.S.-Soviet treaties existed in the pre-Communist czarist days, and in more recent times both countries have joined in multination pacts like the limited nuclear test ban treaty.

The consular treaty sets forth technical procedures to be followed in various nondiplomatic dealings between the two nations.

Diplomatic Immunity

If an American visitor is arrested in the Soviet Union, for instance, a U.S. official has under the treaty the right of access to the American within four days. And consular officers of the two countries are to be accorded diplomatic immunity similar to that of embassy personnel.

As the Senate neared its all-much needed vote today, both friends and foes of the treaty debated it in the broad context of U.S. policy toward the Communists.

Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen, whose support was crucial for the treaty, rose from a hospital bed to voice his backing just before the final vote.

Dirksen saw the overriding problem in the world today as the prevention of a nuclear clash between the superpowers.

At Least A Step

"To be sure, a consular treaty is such a small step toward ameliorating this condition, but it is at least a step," the GOP chief said.

But Sen. Karl E. Mundt, R-S.D., a leader of the treaty's opponents, found it inconceivable that the United States could "sit down and make love with the Russians" while they furnish weapons to kill American GIs.

The outcome slightly exceeded the two-thirds approval required for ratification.

For ratification were 44 Democrats and 22 Republicans. Against were 13 Republicans and 18 Democrats.

Blinding Snowstorm Blamed As Cause For Fatal Mishap

State Police today blamed a blinding snowstorm as the primary cause of a traffic accident Thursday afternoon involving three cars which resulted in the death of one man and injuries to two women.

Dead is Charles G. Nummelin, 75, of Rte. 1, Rock.

His wife, 76, who was a passenger in his car, was reported in "poor" condition at St. Francis Hospital this morning with multiple injuries to her face, head left eye and chest.

Mrs. Vilho (Irene) L. Kaukola, 40, of Rte. 1, Rock, who was also injured, was reported in "good" condition at the hospital. Details on extent of her injuries were not immediately available.

State Police said the accident happened about 4:35 p.m. on County Rd. 529 about 2½ miles west of M-35 in Maple Ridge Township. Blowing snow across the road made visibility almost zero at the time, troopers said.

Two Cars Collide

Police, who are continuing to investigate, reconstructed the accident this way:

In the blinding snowstorm, cars driven by Nummelin and Mrs. Kaukola collided head-on in the center of the road. A short time later Stanley W. Englund, 19, of Rte. 1, Rock, who was driving west, came on the scene.

Unable to see the damaged cars in the center of the road because of the blizzard until it was too late to avoid them, Englund's car struck the Nummelin vehicle, apparently at the same time striking Mr. Nummelin, who was out of his car.

Officers were uncertain whether Nummelin had been thrown from his car in the previous crash, or had gotten out of his car to survey damage and check injuries to Mrs. Kaukola.

Police said that Englund, not realizing he had struck Nummelin, then left the scene to drive to a nearby farmhouse to summon help. When Englund left the scene, Nummelin's body was dragged about 197 feet under his car before dislodging, officers said.

Notifies Police

When Englund notified the State Police Post at Gladstone, he reported there had been a minor personal injury accident. Officers said he did not learn a person had been killed until he returned to the scene.

The death was the second traffic fatality in Delta County this year.

Charles Gabriel Nummelin was born Aug. 1, 1891, in Finland. He had been a resident of the Rock area 21 years. He had moved to the Rock area from Superior, Wis.

Survivors include his widow, Tynne, and one son, Bruno, of Rock.

The body was taken to the Anderson-Johns Funeral Home in Gladstone and will be re-

Tax Break For Business Stirs Balk On Surtax

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's bill to restore two stimulating tax breaks to businesses is rocketing through Congress.

But it's leaving in its wake doubts as to whether lawmakers — now showing such enthusiasm for one form of tax cut — will turn around in a few weeks and endorse the income tax increase for individuals and businesses that Johnson has advocated.

The House passed the bill to restore the investment credit and depreciation speedup 386 to 2 Thursday, just a week after Johnson asked Congress to act. The Senate Finance Committee already has set hearings on it for Monday and Tuesday.

The Senate-House Economic Committee advised Congress Thursday to defer judgment on the proposed income tax boost. The panel said optimistic projections about an upturn in the economy at midyear may not come true.

The House, during debate on the investment credit bill, showed every inclination of following this advice.

The Federal Reserve Board reported a substantial drop in industrial production, providing ammunition to opponents of the income tax increase.

Solons Face Up To 2,047 Bills

LANSING (AP) — Legislators filed an avalanche of last-minute bills Thursday — the last day for introduction of measures not levying taxes or appropriating money.

Senators introduced 99 bills, bringing the session's total to 790. In the House, a fresh batch of 232 would-be laws brought that chamber's total to 1,257.

The bill-drafting Legislative Service Bureau, which twice earlier had pleaded successfully for extensions of the deadline, reported Thursday that all requested bills had been delivered to their sponsors.

Bureau director Don Hoenshell said his six bill-drafters had filled a record 2,484 requests by working overtime during the four weeks ended last Sunday.

The bureau's 10 stenographers, Hoenshell added, worked the equivalent of 84 days overtime during the period.

Under the current legislative schedule, all non-taxation and non-appropriation bills must clear committee in the house of origin by March 30 and must pass in the originating chamber by April 14 and in the other house by May 13.

Both houses scheduled light sessions and only routine business today. Members planned to devote the day to committee work and to Republican caucus on fiscal reform.

Michigan Says No On Federal Savings Time

LANSING (AP) — Michigan's clocks will remain on Eastern Standard Time, despite an 11th-hour lobbyist campaign to move them ahead one hour in accordance with a federal regulation.

Withstanding pressure from backers of Daylight Saving Time, senators voted 23 - 9 Thursday to give immediate effect to a bill exempting Michigan from the federal Uniform Time Act.

Twenty-six votes were needed.

Federal

Congressman Phil Ruppe (R-Houghton) stated today that the new Department of Transportation will not seek strict enforcement of time changes in Northern Michigan while a petition requesting a change of time zone boundaries for Michigan is pending. To strictly comply with provisions of the Uniform Time Act of 1966, the Upper Peninsula would be on Central Standard Time April 1, while the Lower Peninsula would remain on Eastern Standard Time. "The Department is being most cooperative in granting the time necessary to work out our problems," said Ruppe.

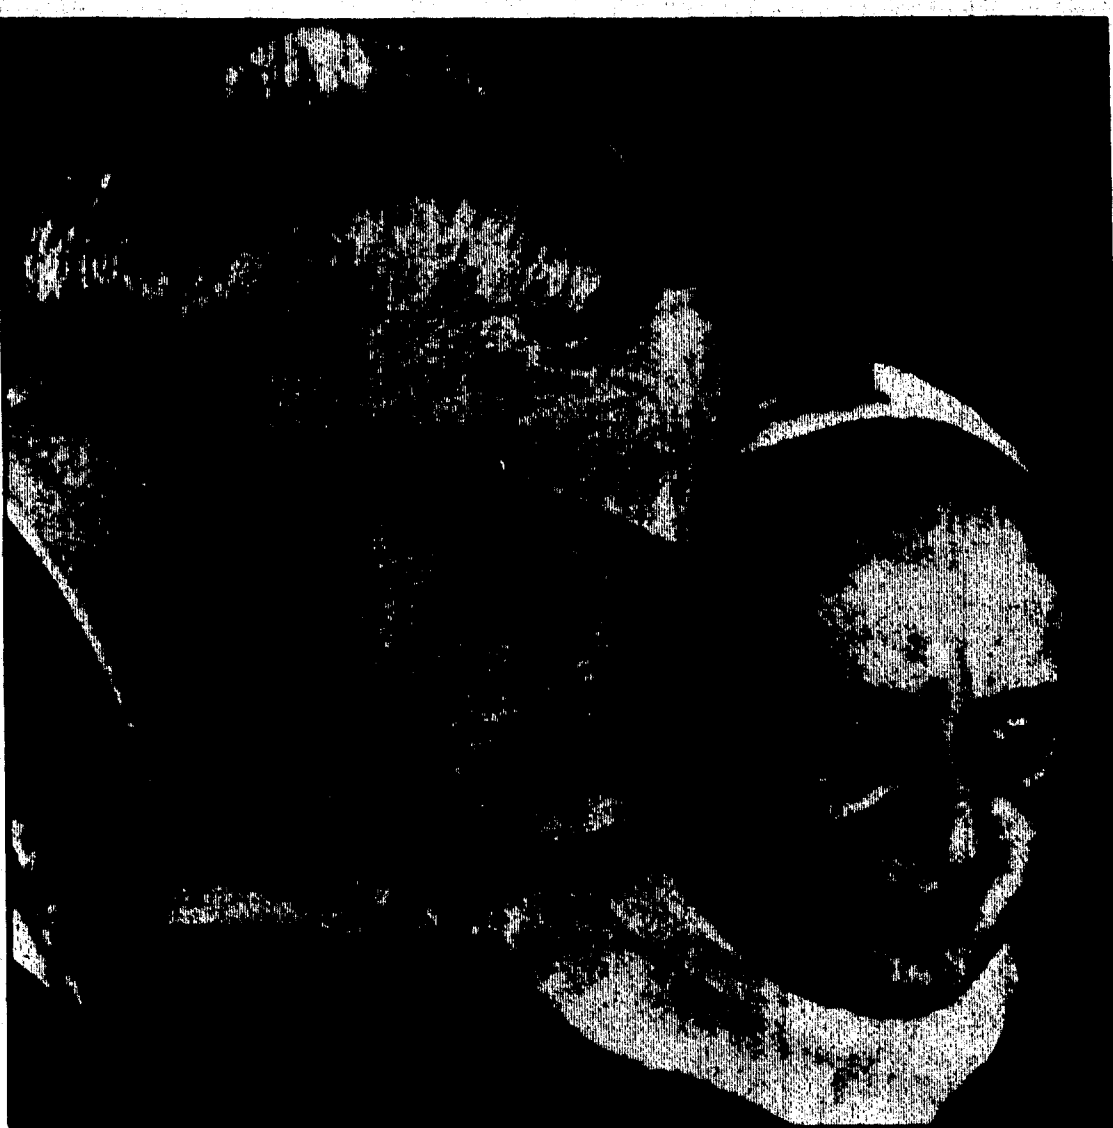

"I understand," Ruppe said, "that the Governor and Secretary of State intend to initiate a petition to bring the Upper Peninsula into the Eastern Zone, and present it to the Department of Transportation. This is being done in conjunction with action by the State Legislature expressing interest that all Michigan be in the same time zone."

"It is clear that action being taken at the State level will weigh heavily in the Department's final determination with respect to time zones."

ed to exempt the state from the act, which requires all states to observe Daylight Time for six months of the year unless they enact exempting legislation.

The bill was passed earlier by the Senate and House and given immediate effect by the Milk Withheld At Two Dairies In U.P.

The milk strike came to the Upper Peninsula on Thursday, affecting at least two dairy plants, as its influence became better defined in downstate Michigan and in the other states affected.

The Upper Peninsula dairy plants which reported some of their normal milk supply withheld on the farms where it is produced included Consolidated Dairies at Bessemer, which gets milk from 60 farms in Gogebic and Ontonagon counties and neighboring Wisconsin to manufacture into ice cream and butter and to bottle as fluid milk.

Don Nelson of Consolidated reported that about one-third of the normal supply of the plant was withheld Thursday, the first day of the strike, by about 20 farms.

"But we're not suffering at all yet," said Nelson.

Frigo Affected

Gogebic County has been the area in which the National Farmers Organization (NFO) which is sponsoring the withholding has been most active and most successful in getting members for its organized effort to force up the prices of farm products by withholding them from market.

Frigo Brothers Cheese Corp. at Carney, where it operates a foreign type cheese plant supplied with milk by 270 farms in Menominee, Dickinson and Delta counties and neighboring Wisconsin, reported that about 3 per cent of its normal supply was withheld on Thursday by six farms.

Jive Talking Lawyer, Second Arrested In Garrison Plot Probe

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — Dean A. Andrews Jr., a jive-talking lawyer who told the Warren Commission that Lee Harvey Oswald consulted him on a few minor legal matters, is the second person arrested in the Kennedy assassination probe here.

Andrews, 44, was indicted for perjury late Thursday by the Parish grand jury.

The indictment came as a three-judge criminal district court would up the third day of a preliminary hearing which will decide if Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison has enough evidence to hold Clay L. Shaw for trial on a murder conspiracy charge.

Andrews said he wasn't surprised by the indictment. "I had 8-to-5 on it and I will pick the money up," he told an interviewer.

He was arrested when he appeared at the criminal sheriff's office. He posted a $1,000 bond and was released.

Andrews is an assistant district attorney in suburban Jefferson Parish. He was suspended from the post only hours before the indictment.

Dressed in a dark suit, Andrews — wearing dark glasses as he constantly does, day or night — went before the grand jury for the second time Thursday.

His first appearance was March 9, before that he was subpoenaed to appear in Garrison's office.

The indictment said Andrews committed perjury Thursday "willfully and unlawfully" by testifying under oath statements which he "well knew were false and untrue and" all of which were related to matters under investigation, to wit: a conspiracy to murder John F. Kennedy.

Wisconsin

Wisconsin reported that the first full day of the milk withholding action of the National Farmers Organization saw slight effect on the supply of milk to Wisconsin dairy plants and only a few isolated incidents of violence.

Rifle bullets punctured an empty steel tank on a milk truck at Schullburg, Wis., six farmers in the Plumb City area reported their bulk tanks drained in the night and at Baldwin milk was dumped on the highway. Threats by phone call were reported by several dairy farmers and some small milk plants closed when truck drivers refused to pick up milk or when they didn't get enough to operate in strong NFO areas.

There was a slight increase in metropolitan area milk sales as fear of a shortage developed.

MMPA Not Affected

Maurice Barrett, of Marquette, membership representative of the Michigan Milk Producers Association in the Upper Peninsula, said that MMPA, which has contracts with dairy processors to keep them supplied with milk from the farms of its members, has not been affected by the milk withholding action of NFO yet.

MMPA is the biggest bargaining agent for dairy farmers in Michigan and also in the Upper Peninsula. The cooperative has 330 dairy farmer members in the U. P. of its 440 commercial milk producers. Others belong to the Pure Milk Products Co-op of Wisconsin.

Barrett reported that the February price for milk at the farm in the U. P. under MMPA contracts averaged from $5.04 per hundredweight to $5.10.

NFO Asks $4.05

The NFO is seeking $6.05 per hundredweight—46.5 quarts—with the price averaging $5.30 at present in the Lower Michigan milk market.

The milk withholding was most effective where NFO has been most successful in its organizing, as in the Saranac

Pictured Rocks Park Work Starts In May

Development of the newly-created Pictured Rocks National Lakeshore in Alger County will resume "about May 1," says C. E. Johnson, superintendent of Isle Royale National Park.

Administration of the $5,000-acre park is temporarily being handled from Isle Royale Park's Houghton office.

"We're waiting for the spring breakup so we can get survey teams back into the area," Johnson said. He pointed out that the team tried to work last November, but that late fall snows put an end to the project "before it really got started."

The ground survey team has to get a good look at the land before acquisition can begin, Johnson noted. "We can't do much of this type of work in several feet of snow." The survey team will also include a land appraiser.

"There's a strong indication that a field office will be set up in Alger County by mid-summer, and administration of the park will be centered there."

"Master planning teams will be working out of the Houghton office this spring and early summer, and they will be based in Alger County when that office is set up within a few months under its own superintendent."

A bill to transfer the 5,000 acres owned by the State of Michigan within the park boundaries, to the Department of the Interior, has been introduced by Rep. Dominic J. Jacobetti (D-Negaunee), and no opposition is expected. This will give the National Park Service a substantial nucleus for early development, Johnson pointed out.

He said more intensive planning and development will begin after appropriations are made July 1. "We didn't get an appropriation for Pictured Rocks Park this fiscal year because we didn't know if it would be okayed by Congress," he added.

Park Service rangers will begin operating existing campgrounds this summer, Johnson said.

Michigan's first "mainland" national park, Pictured Rocks was authorized by Congress last October. It stretches for over 30 miles along Lake Superior from Munising to Grand Marais.

End Flies Only Fishing Rules On The Escanaba

General fishing regulations will again be in effect on the entire Escanaba River as quality trout water regulations on a seven mile stretch from Bonney Falls Dam down to the County Highway 519 Bridge have been lifted, the Department of Conservation announced. Special regulations removed are the 10 inch minimum size for trout and the use of "artificial lures only" as bait on that stretch of river.

4-H Starting Shows Of Its Achievement

4-H winter projects are brought to a close with the beginning of local achievement programs throughout the county. Through these programs 4-H members are given a chance to display their accomplishments in their winter projects and activities.

These projects cover a wide range of interests. The clothing and knitting projects are popular with the girls and they show their talents well, having made such things as full length formal, to a simple school dress. Girls also excel in knitting projects, starting with simple mittens, and advancing to a beautiful, full length coat.

The first achievement program started off with Mid-County 4-H Club on Sunday evening, March 12, at the Flat Rock School. Rock 4-H Club's program is scheduled for Friday evening, March 17 at the school. Gladstone 4-H Club is holding its program on Saturday, March 18 at the high school. Soo Hill 4-H Club will present its program on Sunday, March 19 at the school.

Date Changed
Cornell and Rapid River 4-H Clubs have their programs on Monday, March 20. Cornell activities will be held at the Cornell Hall and Rapid River at the school. Bark River and Schaffer 4-H clubs will also have their programs on Monday evening and these will take place at the school. Monday, March 27, had been the original date for the Perkins 4-H Club Achievement Program, but this has been changed also to Monday, March 20, in the evening at the school.

Pine Ridge 4-H Club will display their talents on Tuesday, March 21 at the Pine Ridge School in the evening. Monday, March 27 will be the date for the Ensign 4-H Club Achievement Program. This will take place at the Ensign Hall in the evening.

The two Wells 4-H clubs, and Hyde 4-H Club will hold their programs on Tuesday, March 28. The Wells groups at the VFW Hall, and Hyde at the Ford River School, both in the evening.

County Achievement
Garden 4-H Club will conduct a program on the 28th, at the Community Building. The final program takes place on the 30th, when the Kipling 4-H Club will display their projects at the Kipling Hall.

The climax of the winter program will be the County Achievement Day program on Saturday, April 1, at the Escanaba Area Junior High School Auditorium. All the clubs from Delta County will attend and the girls in clothing and knitting projects will present a style review program in the morning, starting at 9 a.m. A separate program will be held for the boys, also starting at 9. About 400 girls will take part in the style review program and some 150 boys are involved in other projects.

A talent program will be conducted in the afternoon, and

Snowmobilers Asked Not To Molest Deer

Reports of dogs chasing and killing deer have been more numerous this spring than ever before, the Department of Conservation reports. Dog owners are urged to keep their dogs under control in this critical spring thawing and freezing period.

Conservation officers also asked for care in the driving of snowmobiles in deer areas. Complaints have been received that some snowmobile operators are harassing deer with their machines. Any extra exertion forced on deer in this famine time may kill them, biologists warn. Snow machine operators are asked to drive slowly while passing by or through areas frequented by deer.

Frank Brander

Credit Union Leader Retires

ROCK — The Rock Co-Op Credit Union Board of Directors lost 30 years of experience recently when Frank Brander, 77, of Rock, retired.

Brander was a charter member of the Credit Union in 1929 and has served as a member of the board of directors since 1937.

Born in Finland in 1890, Brander came to the United States in 1906, moving to Rock from Sandstone, Minn., in 1914. When Elisa Halmoeja resigned a year later as president of the year-old Rock Co-Op Company, Brander was elect president. He has served in that capacity longer than any other member, approximately 20 years, though not consecutively.

Brander and other Finnish folk were instrumental in forming the present Upper Peninsula Mutual Fire Insurance Co. in 1916 because other insurance companies would not insure rural property. For many years he served as president of the company, which was previously known as the Rock Farmer's Mutual Insurance Co.

Brander also became chairman of the Federal Farm program which came into existence in 1936, was president of the Rock Board of Education from 1932 to 1940, and also served as president of the Northland Co-Op Federation. At one time, he was president of five different organizations. A charter member of the Rock Lions Club, Brander earned his living farming and logging. In 1949, he sold his farm, which is present owned by John Norman.

Mr. and Mrs. Brander reside several miles northwest of Rock.

Council Studies City Recreation Building Plans

Plans for a new city recreation building to be constructed at the watertower site were received by the Escanaba City Council Thursday night and will be given further study before a final decision is made.

The Council has retained Arntzen Architects of Escanaba to prepare preliminary plans for the proposed recreation center, which will be financed by Catherine Bonifas funds and anticipated federal money. Walter Arntzen, representing the local architectural firm, described the drawings as "schematic" and prepared for the Council to show areas and estimated costs. The preliminary plans would come later, after decisions on size of the structure are made.

There is ample area at the watertower site for both a recreation building and a swimming pool, the Council was advised.

Paul Vardigan, city recreation director, said the baseball field could be left where it is and this would be less costly than moving it to another part of the area.

Estimated costs for a recreation building, with and without a swimming pool, were presented by the architects for the consideration of the Council.

Seek Federal Grant
These costs ranged from a 14,400 square foot basic costing $282,700 to a top estimated cost of $313,500 for a Community Services Center including a swimming pool and Community Action Agency offices.

The "big job" without a swimming pool would cost an estimated $455,755 it was reported.

There are no federal funds available to assist communities in the construction of swimming pools.

Escanaba has made application to the Department of Housing and Urban Renewal for a federal grant of $341,816 to assist in defraying the cost of the $455,755 Community Services Center and CAA offices (without a pool) and if this is approved the city's share would be $118,939. The local share would not have to be all money—there could be contributions of labor by city crews in lieu of cash.

Feel Is Costly
Some of the councilmen raised questions about the growth of the CAA rooms from a request for 2 to an increase to 5 in the plans. They were advised that to get a high priority from the federal government it was necessary to show an increased amount of "service" use of the recreation center.

The discussion indicated that the councilmen as of Thursday night were not sold on the idea of taking on the financial responsibility of a swimming pool.

"A costly venture," Arntzen said of the pool, with special provisions to combat moisture and to meet state health requirements needed for the building housing a pool.

The cost of operating a pool runs at least $30,000 annually and the city might expect its recreation budget to go up 25 per cent over present costs, said City Manager George Harvey.

"Bear Income"
Mayor Harold Vanlerberghe said he could see a substantial increase in the city's budget although there would be some revenue from the users of the pool. Costs and revenues should be discussed so that people will be informed, he said. After four days of meeting with the Board of Review it appears that people want lower—not higher—taxes, he said.

"Perhaps we have a champagne appetite and beer income," Mayor Vanlerberghe quipped.

The Council is taking the whole matter under consideration but there were indications that it expects to make a decision soon, since it has set this year for construction of the proposed recreation center.

Councilman H. George Nelson commented that with federal participation in the recreation center building, there would be Bonifas trust money which might be offered to Escanaba Area Schools to assist in financing a swimming pool, which would be attached to the High School. The High School was constructed with provisions for such an addition in the future.

Chase Is Named
In other business the Council:

Set April 6 for hearing objections to assessments on alley paving; and for public hearing and adoption of a change in zoning along Sheridan Road.

Appointed Councilman Cecil Chase to represent the city on the Delta County Tax Allocation Commission. Councilman George Rusch has served on the Commission for the past six years.

Received with expressions of regret the resignation of Dr. N. L. Lindquist from the Recreation Board, where his services have been outstanding. He resigned because of health reasons.

Adopted resolutions opposing legislation the city believes is harmful to the best interests of Escanaba and other Michigan cities; and endorsed legislation which is designed to bring more revenues to the city for street improvements.

Authorized the mayor and clerk to enter into an option with the Chicago & North Western Railway for the purchase by the Railway of 9½ acres of city-owned land for Railway expansion. The sale was previously approved and the price is $7,752.

Reaffirmed its interest in providing Bay de Noc Community College with the land it has selected for a college site at Danforth Road and U. S. 2-41. Negotiations with American Timber Homes and the Escanaba Foundation will be held to clear the site.

Beginning Of Spring

March brings the beginning of spring and it is a specially dear month in the Upper Peninsula because spring is so welcome here. Especially after such a winter as we have had. Bob Diehm of Stephenson says that it will take two springs to melt the snow away.

The pessimists say that spring doesn't come until April, but you have to stay indoors to be such a pessimist in the U. P. All the people on snowshoes and snowmobiles know that the buds are big on the trees in the forest already and that spring is well advanced on nature's calendar, no matter what humans may think.

This is the month that the Canada geese come back to Seney and that the first wild ducks splash into our widening puddles. March used to be the first month of the year, but Julius Caesar fixed that with his new calendar, adding January and February. (England didn't abandon the practice of the Middle Ages of dating the new year from March 25 until 1752.)

The last three days of March were supposed to have been stolen from April and according to legend they'll be stormy for that reason. The vernal equinox falls about March 21 so the month is part winter and part spring and this creates some indecision in the weather, so that hibernating Upper Peninsulans don't know whether to put on a jacket or a sleeping bag.

The first birds come back in March and they will be as welcome as the first spring flowers. The horned larks are back already. They're among the earliest of our northland nesters and they return as soon as the first fields have patches free of snow.

Our owls, the screechers and barred owls and great horned owls, are nesting and so are the eagles, if we have any left. The winter has been a poor one for bird watchers because of its severity. Some watchers report no bunnings seen and few grosbeaks. Some boreal chickadees — dustier than our native chickadees — have been down from the Far North, but there have been few purple finches about. We've had a lot of pine siskins and goldfinches, which may not be recognized in the greenish winter coat replacing their high yellow of summer.

The crows are back and we have had more ravens in the U. P. than usual this winter because we have had our own flocks and some down from the regions north of Lake Superior. The bird feeders have had the usual infestation of sparrows, starlings and pigeons. Some include bluejays in the pest group, but others forgive their bullying because they flash such a fine mix of blues and purple.

This is the month that logging ends in the woods and that the winter snowfall turns to meltwater and begins running down all the little creeks and gulches to fashion the huge spring wetness of the flooding rivers. The farmers call it mud month and it's too early for them to venture out onto their lands to work.

The sap starts running this month and some of it will be made into syrup. First sugar maples were tapped this week and the first run of sap is awaited in the sugar bushes. Farm chores are down to feeding the livestock.

Dairy cows used to freshen in this period when the Peninsula had five times as many dairy farmers as it has today. Later cows were bred to freshen in the fall because the following spring's fresh greens were expected to extend the lactation period, but now, with a scientific chow line, nature is pushed out of the cow barn and the dairyman doesn't worry about the cows any more but only about himself as he asks: "How can I save more labor?"

March is the month that the folks come back from Florida with tans and indiscretion, saying: "We hear you've had a hard winter!" On melt days there are little samples of spring and a promise of more to come. Easter comes early this year and if April will do the same thing it will be as popular as money.

Balk Fouls Protest

By RAY CROMLEY

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Organizers of the national "Vietnam Week" of protests scheduled for April 8 to 15, are having problems getting their operation going at full steam.

Student groups they had depended on for co-operation have been reluctant to commit themselves.

The most dramatic activity scheduled for the week—the National Student Strike, which had aimed at 550,000 student participants—has been tabled.

Instead, student strikes are planned only on a few "ripe" campuses. The planners hope for sit-ins at some draft boards, civil disobedience to prevent government agencies from operating, boycotts against firms manufacturing war materials and fund raising for medical aid to "napalm victims."

These are operations which can be organized and carried out by handfuls of students and make a good show. The planners can pick places where campus authorities are weak and where student discipline is already lax.

To further their chances for a "good show," the organizers plan to call in high school students and a wide variety of non-student groups. (In Vietnam, demonstrators have found it's easy to draw out numbers of high school students for almost any kind of demonstration.)

The committee now has many slogans against many things besides Vietnam—the Central Intelligence Agency, military contracts, draft "inequities," military influence on the campus and "the corruption of education" and is planning dramatic, showy "campus war crimes tribunals."

These will inevitably attract the curious and a wide array of the discontented.

By these means the organizers, without exposing the weakness of their groups, can put on a "nationwide" show and claim a participation of thousands of students.

One problem for the organizers is that many students have been made leery of "Vietnam Week" by the open, heavy participation of Communist and Communist-front leaders in the planning and organization sessions.

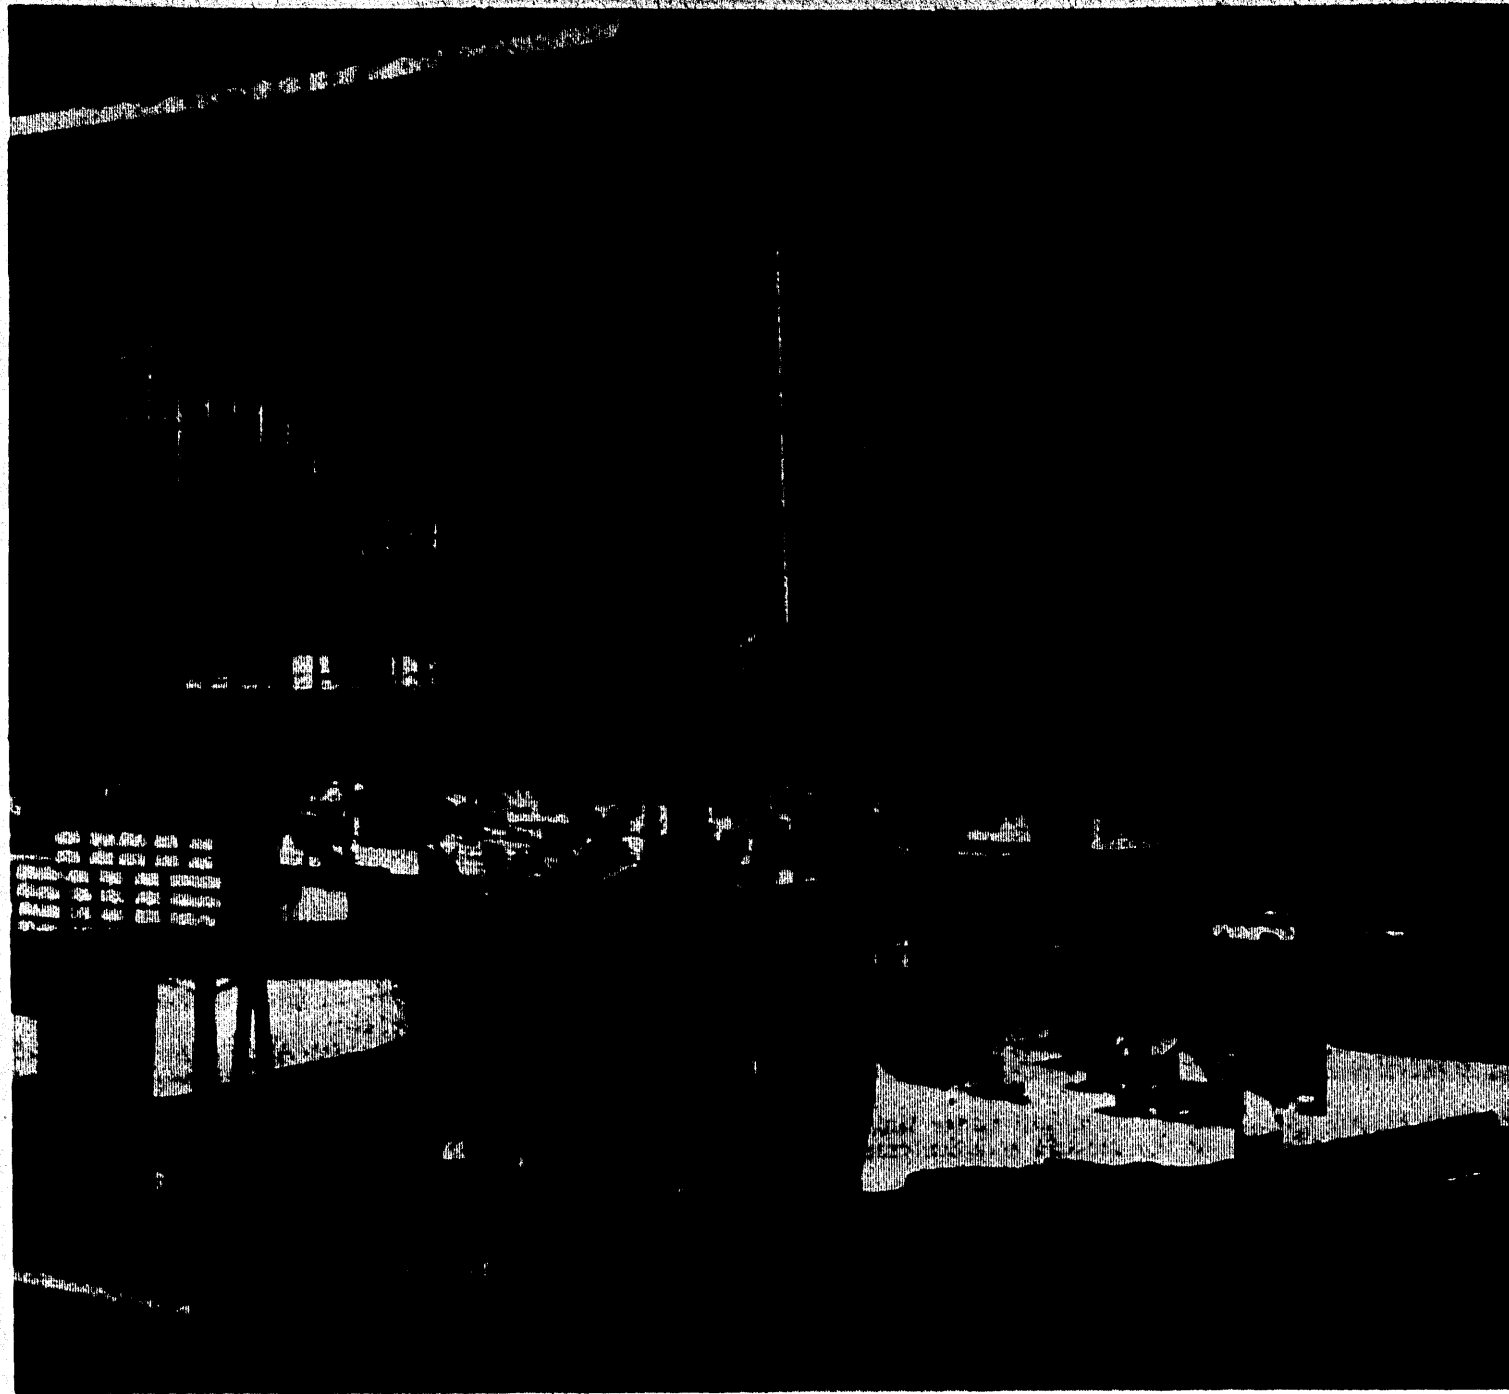

Proposals for the National Student Strike were written and distributed by Bettina Aptheker Kurzwel last August at the Washington Monument grounds in the District of Columbia. Mrs. Kurzwel, a leader in the University of California riots, has announced she is a Communist. She is the daughter of Herbert Aptheker, for many years chief theoretician of the Communist Party USA.

Again, planning for the strike and associated events was made at a December, 1966, Chicago meeting dominated by representatives of the Communist-sponsored W. E. B. Du Bois Clubs of America; the pro-Chinese Marxist Progressive Labor Party; the Youth Against War and Fascism, a Communist splinter group; Communist party members and representatives of the Social Workers Party (designated as subversive by the attorney general) or its youth group, the Young Socialist Alliance.

Another sponsor of the "Vietnam Week" of protests is the Spring Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam. The major national planning session of the committee was held in Cleveland in November. More than two-thirds of those registering were members of the Socialist Workers Party, the Young Socialist Alliance or the W. E. B. Du Bois Clubs. The Communist party was represented by members of its national committee.

By these means the organizers, without exposing the weakness of their groups, can put on a "nationwide" show and claim a participation of thousands of students.

A CURVED rectangular roof, supported on two V-shaped steel beams, spans the Soviet pavilion at Montreal's Expo 67. The interior of the building is dominated by a spherical planetarium. Exhibits will represent the achievements of the Soviet Union in the fields of industry, science and technology, as well as the economic and social development of the country. In the "Cosmos Exhibit" visitors will be able to experience the sensation of weightlessness.

Russian Pavilion To Be Star Of Montreal's Expo

If you wish to take a look at the earth from the moon; if you would like to taste a fish pie or pickled mushrooms or shashlyk and other unfamiliar dishes, and also meet people from the country which stretches from the Baltic sea to the Pacific ocean, then you should visit the USSR pavilion at Expo 67 in Montreal, Canada.

Marking its half-century this year the Soviet Union has put together a display which help explain how this vast country backward and impoverished only a few decades ago, has been transformed into a highly developed modern state.

In keeping with Expo's main theme — Man and His World — the motto of the Soviet exposition is "Everything in the name of Man, for the benefit of Man." The pavilion shows what the people do for a living in Leningrad and in Kamchatka, and how they enjoy themselves.

It depicts the Soviet people gaining control of their natural environment, consistently, improving their life, developing art and culture and contributing to the progress of humanity. One hundred screens are installed in the pavilion to spotlight various aspects of life in the Soviet Union by means of bilingual movies.

Among the exhibits displayed there will be a model of a hypothetical thermonuclear reactor using ordinary water as fuel. It is a prototype of what is to be in the future an inexhaustible source of energy. The realization of this project may well be a beginning of a new stage in the history of the world's power producing industry.

Meanwhile, many electric power plants, both thermal and those which transform the energy of rivers into light and heat, are being built in the Soviet Union. The scale model of Krasnoyarsk hydro — electric power station has been brought to Expo. Situated on the Siberian river Yenisei it is the world's biggest and has a capacity of 5 million kw. It will help to develop and put at man's disposal the huge natural wealth of central Siberia.

Another exhibit will show an off-shore oil field with an extensive use of automation and remote control. It is a scale model of Nefyanys.

Kamni, the newly born Venice of the Caspian sea. The town's streets, lined with two-story white — stone houses for oil workers, out far into the blue waters.

And connected with the topic of using natural resources is a panorama of a plant excavating and processing asphalt — a rich and highly effective fertilizer. This plant, situated within the Polar Circle, is one of many chemical enterprises which keep developing in the Soviet Union. More than 400 of them have been put on stream in the past six years.

The Pavilion explains that in the past five years 55 million people have moved into new homes. They have to pay up to 5 per cent of their wages for rent, which covers only a third of the expenditures on the maintenance of housing facilities. The rest is paid by the state.

The tempo and the scale of construction work are growing and methods are being improved since a lot has to be built. The war of 1941 — 1945 destroyed or severely damaged 1,710 Soviet cities and townships as well as more than 70,000 villages, leaving shelterless about 25 million people. Of course they have been rebuilt but the country's population, now 233 million, is on the increase.

The Bolshoi Theater stars and the Soviet army singers and dancers company will perform at Expo. Also show will be the Festival of the Soviet Nations with 200 participants. The circus will be represented by some of its best artists: Igor Kio, the conjurer, Yuri Nikulin, the clown — satirist, Kudryavtsev, the bear — tamer and others. And Irina Arkhipova, the mezzo — soprano with both Bolshoi and La Scala experience, as well as Nikolai Petrov, a pianist who also enjoys an international renown, will come to Montreal.

There is a theater in the Soviet pavilion with 600 seats. In addition to movies, there will be fashion shows with models from Moscow, Riga and Kiev.

25 Years Ago

The fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the Escanaba National Bank was celebrated by the well known financial institution this week. The week was proclaimed "Friendship Week," and a cordial invitation was extended to the general public to visit the bank during the observance.

St. Joseph grade school students presented a St. Patrick's Day Program today. The theme of the program was Donegal Fair. Each class performed a separate skit.

50 Years Ago

A special program was held in observance for St. Patrick's Day. The day opened with a special mass at St. Patrick's church. During the afternoon, the Strand theater offered three performances of "Ireland a Nation," and a special children's program was presented.

Pupils of the Escanaba night school were the guests of honor at a function held at the high school last night following the regular classes. The affair was arranged by the Escanaba Woman's club.

Pre-emptive Bid Is Useful Tool spades unless his partner can give him three tricks but if he can't make three spades he is sure that his opponents can make a contract of their own.

South could have a slightly better hand. In general the three bid shows six to seven playing tricks when not vulnerable and seven when vulnerable. South only has six.

If North decides to bid South will go down one trick. If North passes, South will make his contract.

Left to themselves, East and West would bid and probably make four hearts. If West takes his life in his hands and does bid four hearts, a spade lead will probably defeat him. It will be up to North to continue by winning the first heart and playing ace and another club but that won't be too difficult.

Opening bids of three and four in a suit are called pre-emptive bids or pre-empt. They show a one-suit hand that will take a lot of tricks with that suit as trump but very few tricks against an opponent's trump.

In general, the bid also denotes a hand not worth an opening bid of one in high cards.

Everyone uses these bids. Many people abuse them. The way not to abuse them is to make sure that you and your partner are in complete agreement as to their meaning.

South's hand is typical for a nonvulnerable pre-emptive bid. He doesn't have the high cards for an opening bid of one. He doesn't expect to make three

Q — The bidding has been:
West North East South
Pass 1♣ Pass 2♣
Pass 3♣ Pass 3NT.
You, South, hold:
♠ 2 ♠ K 6 5 4 3 2 ♠ A Q J 10 9 8 7 6 5 4 3 2 ♠ A

What do you do?
Q — Bid four spades. Prefer a 10-trick to 11-trick game. If your partner has bid like this with only four spades get a new partner.

TODAY'S QUESTION
Instead of rebidding two diamonds, your partner bids two no-trump over your two clubs. What do you do now?

Ann Landers

Balk Fouls Protest Sharing Of Hubby's

Dear Ann Landers: I sent for your booklet "Teen-Age Sex And Ten Ways To Cool It" and I tried all ten ways but not one of them worked.

Now I am in very serious trouble (you can guess the type) and my boy friend has suggested four alternatives (marriage was not among them).

Please do not suggest that I go to my parents because I am an orphan. And don't tell me to try religion because I am an atheist. I hope you will not ask me to speak to my counselor because she has gained a lot of weight lately and I think she is in the same spot I'm in. Can you help me? — MISGUIDED ANGEL

Dear Angel: Darn it! I knew I should have added an 11th way to cool it. I should have suggested that you kids use your excess energy on homework so there would be no strength left for anything—including writing phony letters.

The New Haven postmark is always a tipoff. I receive more clinkers from you birds at Yale than any other group. Knock it off, will you please?

Dear Ann Landers: I am 24. My husband is 28. We've been married for three years. The first two years were fine, but now we have run into serious trouble. The problem is our friends, if you can call them that.

One couple fights constantly and threatens divorce. The second couple is separated but they like to go out on "dates" and are sleeping together. The third couple is divorced but they are sleeping together. It sounds crummy and believe me it is.

Whenever we get together, which is every weekend, everyone sits in front of the TV and gets knee-walking drunk. The conversation is so vulgar I can not stand it. My husband does not say much but he seems to enjoy every minute of it.

I came from a divorced family and making my marriage work is the most important thing in the world to me. Please give me some advice before I crack up. — LONESOME

Dear Lonesome: Make a date with a decent couple next weekend. Your husband spends his weekends with these drunken bums out of habit and the poor boob probably thinks it's the only game in town.

Dear Ann Landers: I can hardly see straight. What do you mean by telling that girl type and my boy friend has soldier husband's letter from Vietnam with his mother. It's obvious that you don't have a son or you'd be singing a different tune.

You should have told that bride to stop the kid stuff—"This is mine and you can't have it." A bride should be happy to share her letters with her husband's mother—and I mean every word. No decent son would write a letter to his wife that he would not want his mother to see.—ENRAGED

Dear En: Sorry, but the advice stands. A wife should let her mother-in-law know when she receives a letter, and she should relate some of the points of mutual interest, but she should not be expected to share her husband's letters with anyone else.

Drinking may be "in" to the kids you run with—but it can put you "out" for keeps. You can cool it and stay popular. Read "Booze and You — For Teen-Agers Only." Send $36 in coin and a long, self-addressed stamped envelope with your request.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope. © 1967, Publishers Newspaper Syndicate

Questions And Answers

Q—Do any birds nest exclusively in one kind of tree?

A—The pinon jay nests in the pinon pine so exclusively that it takes the same name.

Q—What declaration was set forth in the Ostend Manifesto of 1847?

A—The manifesto declared that if Spain would not sell Cuba, the United States would be justified in taking the island by force. All U. S. political parties condemned the manifesto, and nothing was done.

Low Air Fares Boost Travel

NEW YORK (AP) — Tourists planning summer trips to Europe under the new lower air fares are boosting business for travel agents and airlines.

Two million Americans are expected to travel to Europe this year, up from 1.6 million in 1966.

"We're completely booked until September," said Henry P. Huff, executive vice president of Trans International Airlines, an Oakland, Calif., supplemental carrier.

Trans International has scheduled more than 200 charter flights to Europe from San Francisco, Los Angeles, Chicago, St. Louis, Columbus, New York, Boston and other cities this summer, Huff said. Business is up 25 per cent over 1966.

British Overseas Airways Corp. said its New York reservations department has been swamped with calls. BOAC is offering 30 itineraries with room for 25,000 to 30,000 travellers.

Trans World Airlines reports advance bookings for June are up 5.5 per cent from 1966. It is offering more than 250 tours.

American Express reports its European tour bookings are up 25 to 30 per cent over last year and attributes about half the increase to the lower fares.

"Mostly they are people who wouldn't have gone before," said an American Express spokesman. "But now the word is out—if you plan to spend $600 or $700 on a vacation, you can go to Europe just as well."

NEAT BUT NOT GAUDY: Although modern in every respect, this contemporary, three-bedroom ranch does not have the wide expanses of glass and other features that would prevent it from blending with older, traditional houses in the same neighborhood.

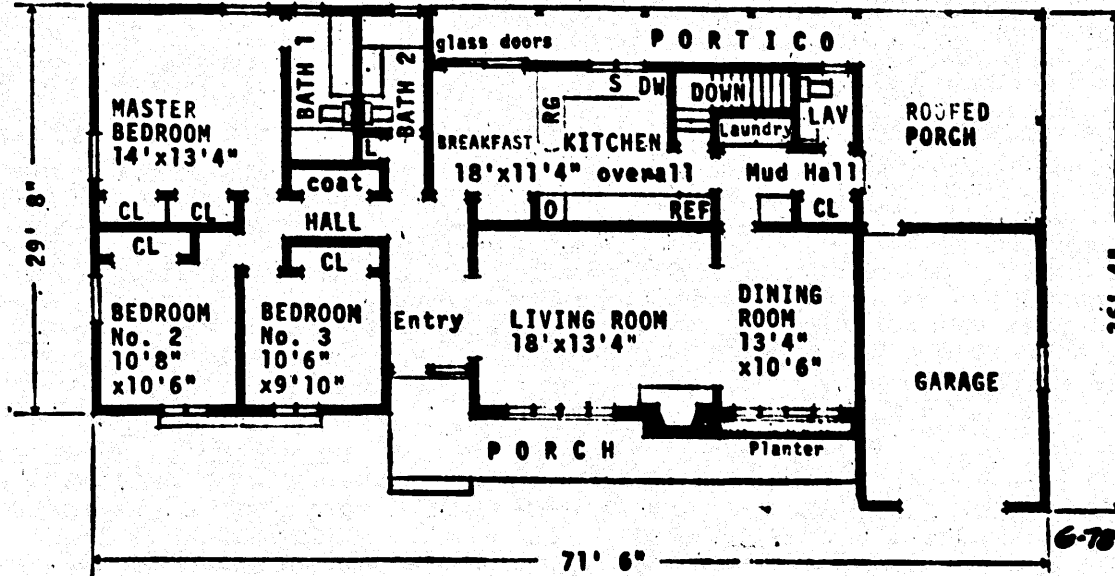

This Ranch Fits Anywhere

By ANDY LANG

Anyone who wants to build a contemporary house on a piece of land surrounded by traditional homes faces the probability that the new residence will appear out of place.

An architect given this assignment must strive to create a design which will prevent the house from seeming to be overconspicuous yet fall within the concept of modernity desired by his client. The newest House of the Week has achieved that result. Architect Herbert C. Struppmann has turned out a design whose exterior has generally contemporary lines but fits comfortably in a neighborhood of traditional houses.

The avoidance of wide windows — that might destroy

SIZABLE KITCHEN: By the use of a partial, functional divider, this kitchen has a working area and a breakfast section, with sliding glass doors leading to a rear covered portico.

G-78 STATISTICS

This three-bedroom ranch has 1551 square feet of living space, comprising a living room, dining room, Kitchen-breakfast room, laundry, mud hall, lavatory, three bedrooms and two full bathrooms. In addition, there is plenty of room for outdoor relaxation, with a long covered portico and a roofed porch at the side, as well as a one-car garage. Overall dimensions, which include the portico, porch and garage, are 71' 6" by 36' 4".

privacy — and gimmicky details — that might be too "far out" are chief reasons this house blends with older homes in a conservative area. The hip-roofed ranch has a good, clean look, with vertical board-and-batten, stone veneer and planters for accent.

The living-dining areas that stretch almost 30' across the front of the house are given privacy by the wide front porch and recessed entry. There is a most interesting arrangement of the fireplace at the front of the living room, with the living room windows on one side of it and the dining room windows on the other. The two rooms can be treated as one or separated into their individual functions. The center hall arrangement keeps traffic out of the area except when the rooms are in use. Important to planning and decorating are the long unbroken walls in each room.

The breakfast end of the kitchen, which is 18' long, could be utilized as a kind of family room, since it is lighted by a pair of sliding glass doors that form a window wall and open to a covered portico. The portico, in turn, connects to the roofed porch at the side, which can also be reached from the service mud hall. A lavatory, the laundry appliances, a closet and the stairs to the basement also are in this area. The kitchen counter, cabinets and appliances are well laid-out for the saving of steps. A closet in the breakfast portion would make an excellent pantry if so desired. Note how this entire area can be reached from the side porch, the rear portico or the front foyer without ever taking a single step in any other room in the house, a maintenance feature the housewife will appreciate.

To the left of the front entry is the bedroom hall and the three bedrooms. The master bedroom, at the rear of the house, has two windows, two closets and a private bathroom. A wide vanity, is back-to-back, for plumbing economy, with the family bathroom that includes a vanity and a linen closet of its own. Each of the front bedrooms has large-scale closets.

The living area of this house is a moderate 1551 square feet. The over-all dimensions of 71'

Crapo Opens Lakes Season

DETROIT (AP) — The Great Lakes navigation season opened yesterday as cement carrier S. T. Crapo left her winter berth at suburban Ecorse.

Despite ice that still clogs the Great Lakes, the 402-foot freighter headed for Alpena, escorted by the Coast Guard cutter Acacia serving as an ice-breaker.

The Crapo, frequently the first vessel to head for Lake Huron, is part of the Huron Portland Cement Co. fleet and is enroute to load cement at Alpena. The firm's flagship, the 502-foot J. A. W. Ighart, is expected to leave Ecorse Saturday on the same trip.

Coast Guardsmen said the Crapo should have little difficulty with ice in channels as long as the Acacia is nearby to break up any ice jams.

Major movement of ore vessels and other bulk carriers to Lake Superior is expected to begin in mid-April. Arrival of the first ocean vessel through the St. Lawrence Seaway will follow this.

P. J. Baribeau Taken By Death

Philip J. Baribeau, 76, of 538 N. 18th St. died at 1:40 p.m. Thursday at St. Francis Hospital following a lengthy illness.

Born March 24, 1890 in Louisville, Province of Quebec, Canada, he came to Escanaba in 1910 and had resided here since that time.

Mr. Baribeau is a member of St. Thomas Church and the Independent Order of Foresters. He had been employed as a crane operator for the Bichler Gravel Co. until his retirement in 1955. On April 23, 1963, Mr. and Mrs. Baribeau celebrated their golden wedding anniversary.

Surviving are: his widow, the former Rose Lafreniere; three sons, Ernest, William and John of Escanaba; seven daughters, Mrs. Louis (Rose) Johnson of Hyde, Mrs. John (Violet) Meyer and Mrs. Stephen (Emma) Clairmont of Escanaba, Mrs. Paul (Irene) Cole of Gladstone, Mrs. Leo (Freida) Whitlaw of Tiffin, Ohio, Mrs. Wayne (Virginia) Schmitt of Ford River and Miss Agnes Baribeau, at home; two sisters, Mrs. Orville Plante, Mrs. Arthur St. Pierre and a brother, Ernest, all of Canada. Thirty-five grandchildren and 27 great grandchildren also survive.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday at St. Thomas Church with Rev. Arnold Thompson officiating. Burial will be in Holy Cross Cemetery.

Professors Plan Iron Mt. Weekend

Professor Norman C. Thomas of the Political Science Department, Professor Paul Cooper of the School of Music and Professor Haze M. Losh of the Astronomy Department, all of the University of Michigan, will be the lecturers at a University of Michigan program at the Hotel Dickinson at Iron Mountain on Friday and Saturday, April 7 and 8.

The program will be entitled "A Weekend with the Professors," and Thomas will speak on "The 1968 Elections: Issues and Prospects" and "Who Makes Our Foreign Policy." Cooper will speak on "The Composer as A Contemporary" and will play music to illustrate his lecture and Miss Losh will speak on "Astronomy Then and Now."

Schlesinger Will Speak In Midland

MIDLAND (AP) — Arthur Schlesinger Jr., author and former adviser to Presidents Kennedy and Johnson, will give two speeches and hold a news conference at Northwood Institute March 20. Tourist Assn. Cuts Debt; To Boost Services

IRON MOUNTAIN — The Upper Michigan Tourist Association has reduced its indebtedness by more than $22,000 in the past eight months, an executive committee session of the Association reported here.

Ken Dorman, UMTA secretary-manager, predicted that the group will be entirely out of debt by the end of its fiscal year on June 30. According to Dorman, a debt of about $8,000 presently remains, and this can be wiped out in the next three months if membership dues are received promptly. This marks the best financial condition in UMTA history.

Jack English, president of the Tourist Association, said that the $22,000 decrease in the UMTA deficit was accomplished by "streamlining the Association's operations and staff, but without any reduction in services" that the tourist group offers to the Peninsula.

He credited many of the changes to the UMTA advisory committee, a blue ribbon panel of leaders from throughout the Peninsula, which made a study of the Association recently. English who was elected to head UMTA last July, also operates the Indianhead Mountain ski area at Bessemer, Mich.

"With UMTA's image improved through financial solvency," English said, "we can provide the kind of dynamic leadership in tourist promotion that the Peninsula needs." He said that UMTA would not only promote and support existing tourist attractions in Upper Michigan, but would also initiate and coordinate plans for new attractions. "UMTA has done this kind of thing in the past," English added, "but it is necessary that we play an even more active role now."

Two new plans were revealed for UMTA membership solicitations at the executive meeting. The first would provide for seeking financial support on a county-wide level, rather than from local units of government. "This would reduce the number of units of government that have to be contacted from over 200 to 15," Dorman said.

The second proposal dealt with individual memberships. It provides that the directors of UMTA carry out the solicitation of individual members. In the past, the Association had employed two men to carry out individual and government solicitations. The committee was asked to study the new proposals, and will vote on them at their next meeting in April.

Members of the executive committee also heard a report on plans for familiarizing interested Peninsula residents with the "Guidelines on Tourism" study. This report was presented by James Gooch and Ray Gummerson of Michigan State University's continuing education department.

Following the Tuesday meeting at the Dickinson Hotel, several members of the group visited the Tourist Association offices to view the new mailing operations there.

Executive committee members who attended Thursday's session were: Jack Miller, UMTA vice-president, Rapid River; Tom Smith, treasurer, Houghton; Don Probert, Munising; Bob Smith, Houghton; Ed Hokana, Ontonagon; Ralph Gilliam, Manistique; Robert Sayles, Newberry; and Ron Klumb, Marquette.

John Migwens Taken By Death

John Migwens of Ensign died at 7 a.m. Thursday at St. Francis Hospital where he had been a patient for 14 days. He was 55 years of age and was employed as a woodworker.

Mr. Migwens was a member of the Catholic Church. He is survived by three brothers and four sisters, all in Canada.

The body has been removed to the Anderson-Johns Funeral Home in Gladstone and will be shipped to Little Current, Canada for burial.

Briefly Told

The Delta County Humane Society will meet at 7:30 p.m. Monday at the Chamber of Commerce Building.

Deleores Hansen, Wells, was ticketed by Gladstone Police for failing to yield the right of way Friday after a minor accident at Michigan Ave. and S. 14th St. at 4:55 p.m.

Richard Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Axel Anderson, 1701 5th Ave. S., is in Bogota, Colombia, doing research work as part of Kalamazoo College's required program. The seniors at the school spend either the winter or fall quarters away from campus practice teaching or doing research for a thesis. Anderson, a 1968 graduate of Escanaba Area High School, is majoring in Spanish.

The condition of Lt. Edsel Bedard of the Escanaba Fire Department, whose left leg was accidentally injured by the fire truck on Wednesday, is reported in fair condition at St. Francis Hospital today. Capt. Duane Hanson of the Fire Department, who is being treated for a back injury and pneumonia, is listed as fairly good.

Escanaba police have issued traffic court summonses to Mike M. Sape, Bark River Rte. 2, improper lane usage; and Joseph L. Larson, Wells, defective tail lights.

The City Service Station at 23rd and Ludington St. was damaged extensively when it was struck by a tractor trailer driven by Donald J. Van Enkevort, Bark River, and owned by the Bark River Concrete Co. The accident occurred Thursday morning when the driver discovered his brakes were faulty and he turned from the street into the station driveway to avoid a possible collision. He was summoned to court for having defective brakes.

AIC Harold Burch

Receives Medal; Airmanship And Courage Cited

AIC Harold T. Burch recently received the Air Medal in ceremonies conducted at Nellis Air Force Base, Las Vegas, Nev., for flying more than 120 hours in the C-130 Loadmaster while on duty in Okinawa.

The flights were in September and November, 1965, and comprised 44 missions, each one under enemy ground fire. He was stationed at Naha Air Base in Okinawa and Burch and his fellow crew members flew their C-130 into Da Nang to load cargo.

From Da Nang they flew to various forward positions to deliver their cargo in support of the troops. Burch was cited for "outstanding airmanship and courage."

Present for the ceremony in which he received the Air Medal was Mrs. Burch, the former Judy Zeno, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Zeno of 2221 5th Ave. S., Escanaba. Airmen Burch was stationed at K. I. Sawyer Air Base. He and Mrs. Burch were married about nine months ago.

GM Provides Car For Nader

DETROIT (AP) — General Motors Corp. will keep its mechanical fingers crossed Saturday.

The company is donating a car to carry auto safety critic Ralph Nader to Detroit, despite Nader's criticism of GM and his book, "Unsafe at Any Speed," which spurred new federal auto safety standards.

Nader will be in the Motor City to speak at the honors convocation at the University of Detroit's engineering college.

Engineering students, admitting they were too "chicken" to call an auto maker and ask for a courtesy car for their critic-speaker, wrote to a problem-solving column in the Detroit Press.

The newspaper made the call and got a car "complete with safety stuff like shoulder harnesses, head restraints, disc brakes, traffic hazard flasher switch, freeway lane-changer signal, padded instrument panel and energy-absorbing steering column."

"GM has a sense of humor," the column said, adding: "Just drive carefully."

News In Brief

MOSCOW — The Soviet government launched the 148th satellite in its unmanned Cosmos series today. Government officials made the announcement.

GREAT LAKES, Ill. — Mary Jean Yeager, 60, widow of Vice Adm. Howard A. Yeager died Thursday of burns suffered in the fire which killed her husband Saturday. They were trapped when the fire swept their home.

WASHINGTON — The Senate has passed without objection President Johnson's plan to provide famine-threatened India with an additional 3 million tons of field grains this year. The measure goes to the House for consideration of a minor change in language.

WASHINGTON — Sen. Thomas J. Dodd may testify today at the Senate ethics group probe of his financial affairs. Neither he nor his lawyer would bare their plans.

At least 39 states will go on Daylight Saving Time this year an Associated Press survey showed today.

CARACAS, Venezuela — War of words between Venezuela's Communist party and Fidel Castro is getting hotter. The Venezuelans say Castro can't tell them what to do. Castro called the pro-Soviet leaders traitors.

WASHINGTON — By a 385-11 margin, the House passed and sent to the Senate a $12.19 billion appropriation bill for defense. It was only $79.3 million less than President Johnson asked in extra money for the Vietnam war.

LANSING — Most Senate Republicans say they agree with Gov. Romney's property tax relief plan but would give more relief to individuals, farmers and small businessmen than to corporations. Fiscal reform proposed by Romney is pending before the legislature.

House despite an unsuccessful attempt to reconsider the measure. It goes to Gov. George Romney for signature.

Romney has said he favors keeping the state on Eastern Standard Time.

Last Minute Pressure
Lobbyists, including representatives of a national radio and television network, airlines and industry, staged a last-minute pressure campaign, urging senators not to give immediate effect to the bill.

The federal regulation specifies that states must exempt themselves by April 1 or go on Daylight Time from the last Sunday in April until the last Sunday in October.

Had the Legislature not given the exemption bill immediate effect, it would not have gone into effect until 90 days after the end of the legislative session—well beyond the federal deadline.

Many senators said they had received telephone calls and telegrams from a Donald Loury, representing the National Broadcasting Co. (NBC), urging them to vote "no" on immediate effect.

"Time Island"
Senators said the network told them Michigan would become a "time island" if it remained on Standard Time.

Sen. Coleman Young, D-Detroit and one of the bill's sponsors, said an NBC representative told him 90 per cent of the nation would be on Daylight Time under the new law and that the network planned to schedule its program on this basis.

Young said he was told Michigan's remaining on Standard Time would put the state out of step with the rest of the nation regarding program scheduling.

Senate Minority Leader Raymond Drendzel, leader of those favoring Daylight Time, said the people of Michigan should be given a chance to try Daylight Time. He said the state could be exempted later if fast time was found to be unsatisfactory.

On Ballot?
"If you do pass it, there will be attempts to put it on the ballot in 1968," Drendzel said, adding that he would be a leader in such attempts.

Backers of Daylight Time said it would keep Michigan in step with Eastern Sea board states on similar time, aid the tourist industry, give workers an extra hour of daylight each day for recreational purposes, help cut traffic accident rates and hinder crime.

Opponents of Daylight Time said Michigan geographically is in the Central Time Zone although it operates under Eastern Standard Time and thus already is observing fast time.

Meanwhile, Michigan representatives were reported to be conferring in Washington with Allan Boyd, head of the new Department of Transportation, regarding a possibility that Michigan may be placed in the Central Zone at some future date.

House Demo Leader Kowalski Suffers Brain Hemorrhage

LANSING (AP) — State Rep. Joseph J. Kowalski of Detroit, the House Democratic leader, was in very critical condition today after suffering a massive brain hemorrhage Thursday in the Capitol Building office.

The 56-year-old lawmaker, who was speaker of the House during the 1965-66 session, spent the night in Lansing General Hospital with a respirator assisting his breathing.

It was reported unofficially, by a source who declined to be identified, that Kowalski's doctors were not optimistic.

His wife and three sons were called to his bedside Thursday. Mrs. Kowalski was rushed by State Police from Detroit where she had been working in a hospital.

First reports said the former speaker had an attack of diabetes—a condition from which he had suffered in the past. That was later denied by a hospital spokesman.

Stricken At Meeting

Kowalski was stricken during a meeting with assistant House Democratic leaders. One of them, Rep. William Ryan, D-Detroit, gave this account:

"Mr. Kowalski's hand began to shake and he put his hand up to his cheek. He seemed to have difficulty clearing his eyes."

"We asked him to sit over on the couch, where we thought he might be able to lie down. But it was rather difficult to get him over there because he seemed to be collapsing."

"When he did get to the couch, he seemed to lapse into semi-consciousness immediately."

Fellow Democrats called an ambulance, which sped Kowalski to the hospital.

Capable Leader

Kowalski was regarded in the House as a capable and effective speaker, though not always a popular one. He was known for a loud, fast gavel and a no-nonsense attitude during legislative sessions.

He had wanted to be the Democratic candidate for speaker this year. But the House was evenly divided between Republicans and Democrats and Kowalski, because of opposition within his own party, gave up his chance at the job.

Ryan was picked as the Democrats' candidate and lost to Republican Robert Waldron of Groesbe Pointe.

Kowalski formerly served as education consultant for the old Michigan CIO Council, as an advisor on worker education to the U. S. Department of Labor and as international representative and assistant director of education of the United Auto Workers Union.

Kowalski was re-elected to the House last November from the 19th District in Northwest Detroit. He began his 10th two-year term this year.

Family Reunion To Honor Carl Johnson

A family reunion which will honor its senior member, Carl B. Johnson of Escanaba, will be held on Saturday, March 18, with a dinner party in the main room of the House of Ludington.

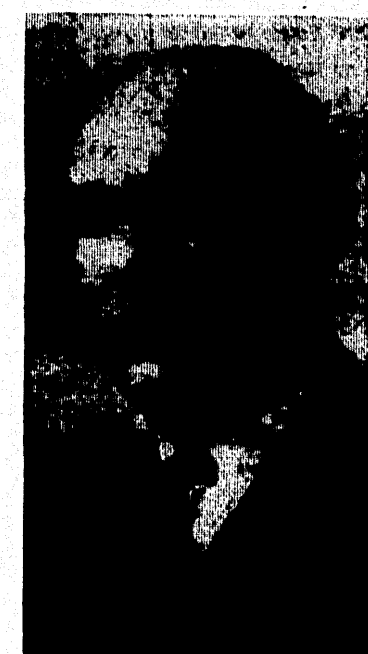

Mr. Johnson, who celebrated his 80th birthday anniversary on Wednesday, March 15, was born in Sweden and came to the United States and to Escanaba about 1907.

He was employed by the Chicago & North Western Railway until his retirement in 1957, and also operated a milk route (the Escanaba Dairy) for 40 years.

Interested in civic affairs, Johnson served as a member of the Escanaba City Council from 1938 to 1944 and was mayor for his first two years on the Council. He was also a member of the Delta County Board of Supervisors.

Mr. Johnson resides at 301 N. 10th St. Mrs. Johnson died about five years ago.

The family includes three sons and two daughters, 17 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. They are:

Carl B. Johnson

Mr. and Mrs. Harold (Esther) Tamblin of Grand Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. Paul (Evelyn) Klenner of St. Louis, Mo.; and the three sons, Dr. Roy B. Johnson, Dr. Vernon K. Johnson and Carlton Johnson and their families, all of Escanaba. Among the grandchildren are the Harold Tamblin Jr., also of Grand Rapids, who will be here for the reunion.

GLADSTONE

TWELVE GIRL Scouts from Cadette Troop 14, Gladstone recently went winter camping at Campbell Lake. The camp was a mile and a half off the main road and the girls had to snowmobile in with all gear. The purpose of the trip was to prepare for the Cadette Challenge of Emergency Preparedness. While on their outing the girls had to use kerosene lamps and candles for light, cook on a wood stove, keep a fire going for warmth, melt and purify snow for water and cook their meals mainly from packaged supplies. The outing was a typical activity for Delta County's Girl Scouts, who this week are observing Girl Scout Week and their national organization's 55th birthday.

Flat Rock PTA Meeting Held

The Flat Rock Parent Teacher Club held its regular monthly meeting Tuesday in the multi-purpose room of the school.

Surprise! Science Proves Guys And Gals Different

SCIENCE DISCOVERY — Guys and gals are different: This is the startling conclusion of two new scientific studies . . . may not bowl you over, but some interesting facts pop up behind these findings. A National Institute of Mental Health-supported study reports that boys, from earliest grades, are more fragile in health, start out with a physical lag, usually suffer more emotional upsets . . . But they make more noise, whip up more fights and think more independently. Though IQs don't differ, girls at every age (another surprise) out-verbalize or out-talk boys . . . But boys out-think girls in more abstract studies like science and math and are more creative. In fact, very bright girls are likely to be interested in these boy-type studies, too, and even in mechanical projects. Girls are more attentive and conscientious in class but tend dutifully to parrot back to teacher. When this study separated the sexes into different classrooms, girls became more independent in their thinking and boys studied harder . . . an alarming discovery for everyone who likes it the other way around. Another school research project — on the Pacific Coast — came up with the easier-to-handle sex (girls) marking . . . But, at the same time, found that men teachers, though less businesslike in the classroom, were more democratic and understanding, as well as emotionally more stable. O. K., that's what science says.

FOOD-FOR-FREEZER-THOUGHT: Refrigerated and even frozen foods — in the best of freezers — deteriorate, warns the U. S. Department of Agriculture . . . advises stocking up for those big bashes with the following time limits in mind: bread and rolls — 3 months in the freezer, 3-4 days in the refrigerator; cakes 3-4 days in the refrigerator, but not more than 2 months and pies (unbaked) not more than 8 in freezer;

Youth Beat

THE NATIONAL REPORT ON WHAT'S HAPPENING

roasts, whole poultry, fruit juices and fruit berries spring out fresh after a full year in the freezer, but best only a couple of days in the refrigerator; fish (a warning to guys who love to bring home a boatload) stand on 2-4 months of freezing; but most vegetables keep up to 8 months.

QUICK SWITCH FROM SKI TO SUMMER: Spring skiing in the high, snow-packed mountains in weeks to come will stretch out through May, June and even later . . . swarming overwhelmingly with young ski buffs. So, it's stimulating to know that this year a new "bare-look" will hit the sun-baked spring slopes . . . It's an imported-from-Sweden skiing bra and helter, the first U. S. sun-ski bra, in a blue or white knitted (matching knickers) . . . Girls skim to the bottom of the slope, then in a quick switch . . . tack on a bikini and jump into the pool.

GRIM-GROWING-UP NOTE: Ten out of 100 of today's college students are reported suffering from emotional problems . . . 3 or 4 of them seriously enough so studying is dislocated . . . about half that many turned apathetic and disorganized. Maybe — or maybe not — related to this, adolescent suicide has gone up sharply — in a 10-year period (1953 to 1963) close to doubled . . . from 2.3 per 100,000 to 4.0 per 100,000. A sign for alarm, not only in the United States, but in other countries like Sweden and Japan, too.

MUSIC NEWS MEDLEY FOR TODAY: Sandy Posey, most promising (and hard-working) new warbler has hit her predicted third song smash (three in a row now) with her new, powerful, "What a Woman in Love Won't Do" . . . it's heading for the top 20. The Beatles may be staging a comeback repeat of their memorable, "I Want to Hold Your Hand" . . . with orders of 1,100,000 pouring in the first half week for their newest, "Strawberry Fields Forever" backed by "Penny Lane" — the biggest demand there's ever been for any record. The top tune hits so far for all of 1967 are: "I'm a Believer" (Monkees), "98.6" (Keith) and "Georgy Girl" (Seekers).

NIT Finals Saturday Afternoon

Marquette To Face Salukis For Crown

By The Associated Press
Hardly anyone expected Wyoming to qualify for the NCAA post season championship tournament when the college basketball season opened last December. Yet the Cowboys from Laramie did and tonight they have the chance to do what no other team has done, beat UCLA and its Player of the Year, Lew Alcindor.

The Cowboys, with the poorest record of any team in the NCAA tourney, 13-12, but with a seven-game winning streak, go against the team with the best, 26-0, in the semifinals of the Far West Regional at Corvallis, Ore. The NCAA, with eight games at four regional sites, moves into the national spotlight following the triumphs of Southern Illinois and Marquette in the semifinals of the NIT Thursday night.

A capacity turnout of 18,400 at New York's Madison Square Garden saw Southern Illinois come from 11 points back to beat Rutgers 70-60 after Marquette had whipped Marshall 80-78.

Southern Illinois, now 22-2 with an 18-game winning streak, battles Marquette, 21-3, in the nationally televised final game Saturday afternoon.

Winston-Salem State from North Carolina surprised Kentucky Wesleyan 82-73 and Southwest Missouri routed Illinois State 90-76 in the semifinals of the NCAA small college tournament at Evansville, Ind. Winston-Salem, 30-1, and Southwest Missouri, 23-4, play tonight for the championship.

Oklahoma Baptist, the defending champion, St. Benedict's, Morris Harvey and Central Washington won in the NAIA quarter-finals at Kansas City to round out Thursday's action.

Oklahoma Baptist edged Southwestern Louisiana 68-65, St. Benedict's beat St. Mary's, Tex., 80-73. Morris Harvey downed Tennessee Wesleyan 75-58 and Central Washington squeaked by Eastern New Mexico 60-59.

St. Benedict's, 25-2, meets Morris Harvey, 20-3, and Oklahoma Baptist, 24-4, battles Central Washington, 20-3, in the NAIA semifinals tonight.

Nine of the Top Ten teams in the final Associated Press poll of the season play in the NCAA regionals tonight. Western Kentucky is the only team missing. The sixth-ranked Hilltoppers were upset in overtime by Dayton in the NCAA first round last Saturday.

The unranked Dayton Flyers, 22-3, go against eighth-ranked Tennessee, 21-5, in the Midwest regional at Evanston, Ill., where Virginia Tech, 19-4, and Indiana, 17-7, also tangle.

Second-ranked Louisville, 23-3, faces Southern Methodist, 19-5, and third-ranked Kansas, 23-3, battles seventh-ranked Houston, 24-3, in the Midwest regional at Lawrence, Kan. Fourth-ranked North Carolina na, 24-4, and fifth-ranked Princeton, 24-2, meet in the East regional at College Park, Md., after ninth-ranked Boston College, 20-2, encounters St. John's of New York, 23-3.

University of Pacific, 23-3, risks its 20-game winning streak against the 10th ranked and defending national champions, Texas Western, 21-5 at Corvallis before top-ranked UCLA takes the floor against Wyoming.

Walt Frazier, with 26 points, sparked the comeback of Southern Illinois against Rutgers in the NIT after the Salukis had trailed at 32-21. Bob Lloyd and Jim Valvano, Rutgers' stars, were held to four points each in the second half. Valvano finished with 24, Lloyd 20.

George Thompson threw in 28 points to lead Marquette over Marshall. The Warriors pulled away with a 10-3 burst in the second half after Marshall had rallied to within one point at 57-56. George Stone led the Thundering Herd from West Virginia with 25 points.

Eugene Smiley, with 27, and Earl Monroe, with 24, combined for 51 points to pace the Winston-Salem Rams in their upset of Kentucky Wesleyan. Danny Bolden's 27 led Southwest Missouri over Illinois State.

Schoolboy Cage Action Resumes For Semifinals

LANSHING (AP)—The 16 best schoolboy basketball teams in Michigan, backed by an army of 40,000 fans, converged on the state capital today for the final act of the 42nd annual State High School tournament.

The 16 semifinalists will spend the next two days vying for championships in four classes after hacking their way through an original field of 750 teams. Grand Rapids East Christian, the only defending champion still in the running, faces Willow Run in one Class B semifinal with upstart Menominee up against the St. Patrick's Day luck of Lansing O'Rafferty in the other game.

The Class A doubleheader at Jenison Fieldhouse matches 6-foot-4 Spencer Hawood and his Puringham Doughboys, bidding for the Detroit City League's first title since Detroit Northern won in 1950, against Detroit Catholic Central which won its only championship in 1961.

In the other Class A game, Kalamazoo Central, a finalist nine times with five championships to its credit, faces newcomer Flint Central, looking for its first title.

In Class C, Wakefield's Cardinals, semifinalists in 1965, tangle with Mount Pleasant Sacred Heart, boasting a starting five averaging 6-foot-4, and the Detroit All Saints, runnerup in 1963, meets unbeaten Leslie.

The Cardinals had the longest ride, 516 miles from the Wisconsin border, in the tournament. Their big scorer, Al

Inkala, still remembers his sophomore year when Wakefield was bumped in the semifinals by Muskegon Christian in 1955.

Adrian Catholic's small but frantic rebounders meet Ewen, the No. 1 team in the final Associated Press poll, in one semifinal Class D game. Flint St. Matthew is pitted against tiny Freeport in the other match. St. Matthew won the title in 1962 and Freeport was runnerup in 1961 but neither Adrian Catholic nor Ewen has been to Lansing before.

Tonight's semifinal pairings:

CLASS A
Det. Catholic Central (19-1) vs. Det. Puringham (19-1), Jenison Fieldhouse, 7 p.m.
Flint Central (19-2) vs. Kalamazoo Central (21-3), Jenison Fieldhouse, 8:30 p.m.

CLASS B
Lansing O'Rafferty (20-1) vs. Menominee (11-10), Lansing Everett High, 7 p.m.
Willow Run (18-3) vs. Grd. Rpts. East Christian (30-4), Lansing Waverly High, 7 p.m.

CLASS C
Wakefield (22-0) vs. Mt. Pleasant, Sec. Ht. (24-6) Lansing Civic Center, 7 p.m.
Det. All Saints (20-3) vs. Leslie (25-0), Lansing Civic Center, 8:30 p.m.

CLASS D
Adrian Catholic (20-1) vs. Ewen (20-1), Lansing Sexton High, 7 p.m.
Flint St. Matthew (21-0) vs. Freeport (20-3), Lansing Gabriels High 7 p.m.

Army Or Jail, Cassius Won't Reveal Decision

NEW YORK (AP)—Cassius Clay isn't telling whether he'll go into the Army or jail, but it's become apparent that the heavyweight champion plans to put on a dazzling show in what "could be my last fight."

The undefeated, 25-year-old new Texan risks his title for the seventh time within a year and the ninth time in all Wednesday night when he faces 34-year-old Zora Foley at Madison Square Garden.

After confining most of his boxing activity earlier this week to nimble footwork, Clay opened up in the final two rounds of a four-round boxing drill Thursday with sparring partner James Ellis.

The champ had a standing room crowd of more than 300 cheering enthusiastically as he punched away at close quarters with his 6-foot-1, 185-pound buddy and sparring partner, Ellis has about the same physical measurements as Foley.

"My main concern now is with Foley," said Clay when he was asked to comment on the word from Louisville that he had been ordered to report for Army induction April 11.

He said that information on any appeals would have to come from his attorneys, chiefly Hayden Covington.

When asked if he would go into the Army or to jail if all of his appeals from the draft are rejected, Clay said: "My decision is made. I won't tell you what it is. I have to answer to the government, not reporters. But I know what I have to do."

A reporter told Clay there were Muslims in the Army. Clay quickly retorted "the jails are full of Muslims."

The champion, who has discarded the name of Cassius Clay for that of Muhammad Ali, is seeking exemption from the draft on the grounds that he is a Black Muslim minister.

Meanwhile Zora Foley, the quiet man for Wednesday's home television fight, stepped up his boxing preparations for his $70,000 title shot.

The 34-year-old Korean War Army veteran boxed four brisk rounds with Wendell Newton in the Garden's Exposition Hall after Clay finished his workout.

Much slower than the fleet-footed, agile champion, Foley continued to concentrate on solid left hooks to the body and fast right-hand counter-punches to the head. Foley will be giving away age, height, weight and reach. He may decide to gamble on a knockout.

"I'm going to try," he said.

Publicity Man Gets Top Post

BALTIMORE (AP)—As he had promised, owner Carroll Rosenbloom picked an Old Cock to become general manager of Baltimore's entry in the National Football League.

But the Old Cock named Thursday to fill the vacancy created by the death of Joe Campanella didn't come from the players' ranks.

The new general manager is Harry Holmes, who was advanced to the top office post from his job as publicity director. Named to replace Holmes was Jim Walker, a reporter for the Baltimore Evening Sun.

Eastern Third In Swim Meet

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—Eastern Michigan took third place Thursday after the first five events in the 11th annual NAIA national swimming and diving championships. EMU piled up 58 points, just three behind leading Bethany, W. Va. MacAlester was second with 53 points. Some 1,000 competitors from 51 colleges in 30 states are participating in the three-day tournament.

Dartball Teams Begin Tourney

Opening round games were played in the Escanaba Tavern Dartball league's second half tournament Thursday night.

Lombardi's defeated Colonial, Mipped Spaw's and Eddy's stinked Sportsmen's.

Two games Monday night will match Bay de Noc against Lombardi's at Sportsmen's and West Side against Eddy's at Colonial.

Lumpe Fighting For Tiger Job; Talks With Bat

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP)—Jerry Lumpe, fighting for survival with the Detroit Tigers, is talking with his bat again.

The veteran infielder drove in three runs with two hits as Detroit ended a three-game losing streak Thursday with a 6-3 decision over the Cincinnati Reds. He was inserted into the lineup at first base in place of the injured Norm Cash.

"I'll play anywhere when I'm fighting for my life," grinned the 33-year-old infielder after game. "First base isn't the answer for me. There won't be any room there when Norm Cash gets back in the lineup."

"But things are awfully crowded around second base." Manager Mayo Smith moved shortstop Dick McAuliffe to second this year, bumping Lumpe. Dick Tracewski, Jake Wood and rookie Tom Matchick also have their eyes on the job. Smith is expected to cut one of them before the season starts in April.

"You've got to like Matchick too," said Lumpe. "It looks to me as if he's ready right now." Lumpe drove in Detroit's first run with a third-inning single, then slammed a double in the Tigers' four-run, fourth-inning rally, to knock in two more.

The Tigers added a run in the seventh to round out the scoring.

The Reds touched rookie Pat Dobson for two runs in the sixth on Tommy Hien's bases-loaded single and scored their final run in the eighth when Deron Johnson homered off Hank Aguirre.

Earl Wilson, who started for Detroit, was the winning pitcher, giving up two hits in three shutout innings.

An error by McAuliffe and an infield hit loaded the bases for the Reds with two out in the ninth, but Aguirre got the final out when Len Boehmer lined to Tracewski at short.

The victory put Detroit's exhibition record at 4-3 for the spring.

Mickey Lolich, Fred Gladning and John Podres were to pitch today against the Chicago White Sox. Chicago will counter with Gary Peters, Hoyt Wilhelm and Wilbur Wood.

Gerry Gerard, rugged 6 foot 5 inch L'Anse cage star, has announced he'll enroll at Northern Michigan University next fall . . . Gerard, who carries 200 pounds on his sturdy frame, averaged 30.4 points per game in the regular season, finished the overall campaign with 624 and had a career total of 1,706 to rank among the top 10 Upper Peninsula point producers in history . . . He also maintained an excellent 3.5 grade average through high school.

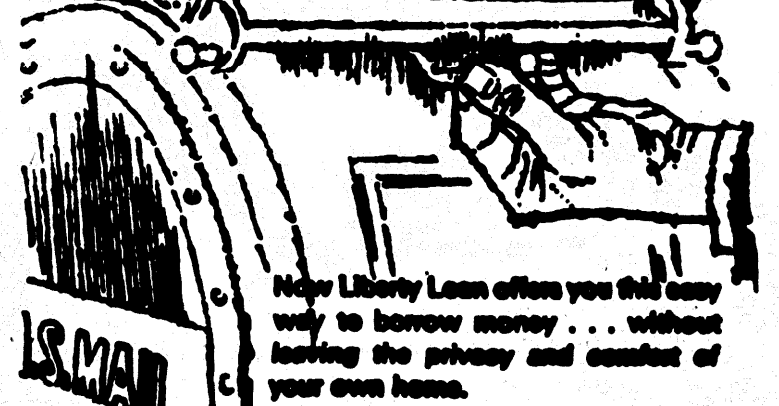

Michigan Tech's Gary Milroy, senior captain of the Huskies, closed out a brilliant hockey career this season . . . Milroy, a three year star at the Houghton college, scored 43 points in 39 games this season, registering the hat trick twice.

Curt Marker, 6 foot 2 inch, 238 pound guard on the Northern Michigan University football team, was a fourth round choice of the Dallas Cowboys in the pro football draft this week . . . Marker, of Indianapolis, was the top lineman on Coach Rolfe Dotsch's Wildcat squad last fall . . . He was named to the NATA All-State team, made the Associated Press All-America second team and was a starting guard in the Blue-Gray game in Mobile, Ala., following the regular season.

Members of Coach Stan Albeck's Northern Michigan basketball squad picked Les Coduti, 5 foot 11 inch former Sappington ace, as winner of the first annual Thoroughbred award . . . The honor goes to the player whose performance exceeded his ability the most times during the year . . . Coduti, who connected on 26 straight free throws at one stretch and hit 73 of 91 for the season, was the third leading scorer for the Wildcats with 277 points.

Coach John Butrymowicz will lose his leading scorer, top rebounder and most accurate shooter in Tom Smith through graduation this season, but the Crusaders are well stocked with underclassmen . . . Back in the fold next year will be current freshman Dan Young, sophomores Terry Dufour and Al Grabowski and juniors Augie Janke, Bill Peltin, Fran Veldman, Pat Verhamme, Dennis Weber and Chris Young.

Marichal Lone Holdout; Allen Gets Raise In Pay

By The Associated Press

Allen, who was spending spring training selling cars in Philadelphia while holding out for $100,000, probably reached $75,000. He made $40,000 last year when he hit .317, drove in 110 runs and belted 40 home runs.

"I'm happy with the contract and happy that I'll be with the team in a few days," Allen said. "I like playing ball too well to enjoy sitting out while the rest of the players are working out in Florida."

Two weeks ago, Allen said he was ready to spend the season selling autos if the Phillies did not meet his price. Both sides compromised to reach Thursday's agreement.

Marichal, the Giants' ace right-hander, and Horace Stoneham, president of the Giants, apparently have reached an impasse in negotiations.

Marichal is still at home in the Dominican Republic, thinking in terms of six figures while the Giants are standing by their $90,000 offer.

Another $100,000 athlete, Baltimore's Frank Robinson, expects to test his right knee for the first time under game conditions tonight against the New York Mets.

Robinson, who underwent a cartilage operation during the winter, went through a stiff sliding and running workout Thursday with no ill effects.

Robinson feels ready to go, and the New York Mets left no question that they're fully prepared. The Mets dropped one of their unbelievable games, 23-18 to Boston Thursday.

In other exhibitions, Philadelphia edged St. Louis 3-2, Detroit dropped Cincinnati 6-3, Atlanta topped the New York Yankees 6-4 in 16 innings, Cleveland whipped San Francisco 6-2, the Chicago Cubs downed California 7-1, the Chicago White Sox defeated Houston 11-3 Pittsburgh blanked Baltimore 6-0 and Kansas City beat Minnesota 5-2.

The Mets took a five-run lead into the final inning against the Red Sox and came out of it five runs behind.

"That's the wildest thing I've ever been in," said Wes Trum, who is only starting his second season of managing the Mets.

Larry Jackson pitched five scoreless innings as the Phillies edged the Cardinals. Tony Taylor drove in two first inning runs with a single.

Jerry Lumpe drove in three runs with a pair of hits, leading the Tigers over the Reds. Deron Johnson homered for Cincinnati. Singles by Hank Aaron and Joe Torre and a sacrifice fly by Felipe Alou drove in three runs in the 16th inning as the Braves dumped the Yankees. New York made seven errors in the marathon.

Cleveland scored all its runs in the fourth inning against the Giants, battering starter Ray Sadecki. Fred Whitfield and Leon Wagner stroked the key hits.

Dick Bertell's double triggered a six-run seventh inning as the Cubs routed the Angels.

Bubba Morton had three hits for California.

Lee Elia, Pete Ward, Tommie Agee and Dick Kenworthy walked home runs in the White Sox' romp over the Astros.

Jim Shellenback, Billy Knock and Doc Elks—three Pirate farmhands—held the Orioles to three hits as Pittsburgh shut out Baltimore.

In the Kansas City-Minnesota game in Caracas, Venezuela, Kansas City scored three runs in the fourth for its victory, the first after six straight exhibition losses.

Sikes Is Early Tourney Leader In Jacksonville

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—Dan Sikes has his hometown rooting for him in the Jacksonville Open, but the 36-year-old lawyer says he thinks it's harder to win in golf at home than it is on the road.

"Even Arnold Palmer says the same thing," Jacksonville's only native son on the pro tour said Thursday after grabbing a one-stroke lead in the first round of the $100,000 tournament here.

"I was really nervous," added Sikes after his five-under-par 67 on the wind-raked Deerwood Club course. "It's hard not to let your mind stray when you see somebody you know all the way around the course.

"And I think you try too hard at home and get all tightened up because you want to win so badly in front of your friends," Sikes said. "I know I'd rather win the Jacksonville Open than any other tournament except the real big ones like the Masters."

Victory in the Jacksonville tournament would end a two-year drought for the Florida Law School graduate who last won the 1965 Cleveland Open.

Sikes' closest challengers going into today's second round were Gay Brewer Jr., last year's Jacksonville runner-up, and Kansas City rookie Jim Colbert, who shot 68s.

Colbert, who attended Kansas State on a football scholarship before turning to golf, has had little success since joining the tour a year ago. The 26-year-old father of three girls had a hot putting round to make his biggest surge as a pro, sinking birdie putts of 20, 20, 12 and 10 feet.

Brewer, edged by a stroke by Doug Sanders a year ago for Jacksonville title, said he was playing well "and putting pretty good." The Dallas, Tex., veteran—who will be 35 on Sunday in the tournament showdown—was helped by a 35-foot approach shot which dropped for a birdie on the 16th hole.

Golf's big names were back in the pack, with Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player shooting 72s, Saunders a 73 and Palmer a 75. Julius Boros, who won the Citrus Open last Sunday, shot a 77, a stroke back of Don January, who won a new car with a hole-in-one on the 154-yard eighth hole.

Piston Playoff Hopes Bleak After Setback

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Pistons' slim playoff hopes look bleak today in the wake of a 132-108 shellacking by the Boston Celtics.

The loss Thursday night left Detroit a full game back of Chicago in the battle for the fourth and final playoff spot in the Western Division of the National Basketball Association.

Each team has two games to play, so Detroit would have to win both of its games while hoping for a Chicago split to gain at least a tie and force a playoff.

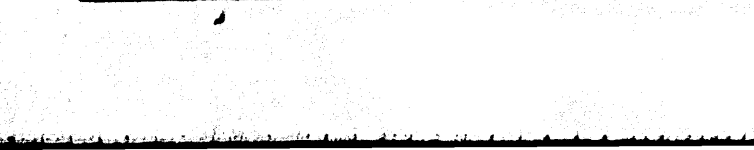

Former Piston Billy Howell sparked the Celtics with 37 points and teammate John Havlicek added 25.

Wayne Hightower topped Detroit with 18 points.

Seldom-used Len Chappell scored 16 points in playing an important role in Cincinnati's victory over St. Louis. He scored eight points in the fourth quarter, including two field goals which gave the Royals lead for keeps with four minutes to play. Oscar Robertson was high for Cincinnati with 32 points and Paul Silas topped the Hawks with 26.

At San Francisco, the Warriors played only seven men but each scored in double figures as the Western Division NBA champs beat the Eastern Division champions, Jeff Mullins led the Warriors with 31 points. Hal Greer paced the 76ers with 25.

We wish to extend our sincere thanks to the many friends and relatives who were so kind during the illness and subsequent death of our beloved mother, grandmother, Ida G. Johnson. We especially thank those who visited her and sent cards while she was a patient at St. Francis Hospital, Sisters of St. Francis, Doctors, Nurses, Aides, Hospital Staff, Daughters of Isabella Trinity Circle No. 302 and Regent. We are deeply grateful to Father Jordan O.F.M. and Father Isidore Telles O.F.M. of St. Joseph Church for their comforting words. To the Boyce Funeral Home, to those who sent spiritual bouquets, flowers, cards, gifts of food and money, to the pallbearers, those who donated cars and all who assisted in any way, at any time at the funeral. We shall always be grateful for the sympathy and comfort shown us.

Mr. and Mrs. David K. Johnson and Family

Champion

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to the many friends, neighbors and relatives who by their acts of kindness in the death of our dear mother, Belle Champion, helped to lighten our burden of sorrow. Especially do we thank the Rev. Carl Hammar, Rev. Robert Selberg, Rev. Constantine Wipp for their comforting words, Allo Funeral Home, those who sent floral and spiritual bouquets, memorials and food. Your kind acts will never be forgotten.

Mrs. Norman Doucette & Family, Mrs. Allen Hynes and Family

Lewandowski

I wish to thank all friends and relatives who sent cards, letters, gifts and flowers and all those who visited me on my recent stay in St. Francis Hospital. To the nurses and priests for their comforting visits. To doctors, nurses, and nurses aids for their attention and kindness.

In Memoriam

LaLonde

In loving memory of our dear husband and father Alex LaLonde who passed away one year ago, March 19, 1966.

We do not need a special day, to bring him to our minds. The days we do not think of him, are very hard to find. Within our store of memories, he holds a place apart. For no one else should ever be, more cherished in our hearts.

Sadly Missed by

This Is What It Is To Be Irish!

EDITOR'S NOTE — Arm in arm with a leprechaun, Hal Boyle headed for the St. Patrick's Day parade early this morning, leaving behind in his typewriter a fresh sprig of shamrock and the following message, which may have a familiar ring to some:

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — What is it to be Irish?

On 364 days of the year being Irish isn't visibly different from being Scotch, French, Italian, Jewish, Serbian, Dutch, or — yes — even English.

The Irishman pays his bills, complains against his taxes, does his work, and listens to his wife like the man of any other race.

But on this one day of the year — holy St. Patrick's Day — the Irishman becomes an Irishman.

And on this day you have to be Irish to know what it is to be Irish.

The outer signs, of course, can be seen by all. The Irishman overnight grows a foot taller and stalks the earth a giant. All traffic lights turn green before him, and if they don't he sees red.

Hard To Put In Words

But this air of majesty is only taken evidence of interior change. The men of other races who envy the Irishman his bearing of St. Patrick's Day would envy him far more if they could look inside the Irishman's soul. What is it to be Irish?

How can you put the wonder of it into words? If a psychiatrist stretched himself out on his own warm couch after his last customer had gone home, and he dreamed of the man he himself would most like to be — we'll, he might be perfect, but he'd still be only half an Irishman on St. Patrick's Day.

What is it to be Irish? Oh, on this day it is music. Not just the cornet in the parading high school band, but the deep, deep music of living, the low, sad rhythms of eternity.

What is it to be Irish? It is to live the whole history of his race between a dawn and a dawn — the long wrongs, the bird-swift joys, the endless hurt of his ancestors since the morning of time in a forgotten forest, the knock at his heart that is part of his religion.

A King Himself

What is it to be Irish? It isn't only the realization that he is descended from kings. It is the realization that he is a king himself, an empire on two feet striding in power, a strolling continent of awe.

What is it to be Irish? Why, on St. Patrick's Day, to be Irish is to know more glory, adventure, magic, victory, exultation, gratitude and gladness than any ordinary man can experience in a lifetime.

What is it to be Irish? It is to walk in complete mystic understanding with God for 24 wonderful hours.

Miniskirted Wife Of Minister Helps Young People To Find God

LONDON (AP) — "I think that I can help many young people find God," said the miniskirted young wife of a British Methodist minister.

"I think miniskirts are super," Marjorie Janney continued. "They express the freedom of our age. One can move about in a miniskirt."

"By being modern I feel I can encourage young people to realize that religion does not mean disapproval."

Newspaper pictures of the Rev. Denis Janney's shapely 28-year-old wife in a skirt that ended six inches above her knees brought her a bunch of anonymous critical letters.

"We burned the letters," said Mrs. Janney.

"It's not their business what sort of skirt my wife wears," said her husband, whose parish is in southeast London. "It's this sort of intolerance which keeps many people from going to church. I'm proud of my wife and proud to have her a member of my church."

Mrs. Janney, a red-haired model and the mother of a 7-year-old daughter, says since she started wearing short short skirts she has done two television commercials and has been offered two parts in the movies.

The band of the King's Hussars also named her their pinup.

Mrs. Janney takes an active part in church life. She gives hours each week to a church youth club, speaks regularly to women's organizations and gives fashion and beauty hints to young wives.

She and her husband said the critical letters came from outsiders, not from his parishioners.

"So far as we know," said the minister, "no one in the congregation objects to my wife's skirt. The fact is — our attendance is growing."

Latin Aid Runs Into Opposition

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson may go to the Punta del Este summit conference next month without formal congressional approval for his Latin-American economic integration program.

Mounting opposition, led by Chairman J.W. Fulbright of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, threatens to delay approval for the program Johnson has proposed be financed by $1.5 billion in additional expenditures over the next five years.

In advance of a scheduled appearance today by Secretary of State Dean Rusk before his committee to outline the program, Fulbright said in an interview he is opposed to "hasty procedures" on clearing a resolution approving the program before Johnson's trip.

"I think this matter should be handled in the regular way with thorough examination of the individual proposals," he said. "I do not approve of blanket endorsements of such programs."

"This resolution could be entirely innocent where some of them have not been. But I do not wish to be a party to participating in approval in advance of a program that we know little about."

"Once we have voted such a resolution we have a moral obligation to approve whatever is done, whether we like it or not."

High Costs Bring Shift In Farming

EAST LANSING (AP) — Because of high labor costs in dairy farming, "cash grain" operations rapidly are replacing dairying as Michigan's most common type of farming, Michigan State University scientists say. They estimate that by 1980 Michigan will have 13,000 cash grain farms, which can be highly mechanized, compared to about 8,000 dairy farms. In 1964, the state had 15,500 cash grain farms and 20,230 dairy farms.

Delay Merger For Cabinet

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Johnson administration reportedly has decided against seeking immediate congressional approval for consolidating the Labor and Commerce departments into a department of economic affairs. But reliable sources said today the administration doesn't consider the plan irretrievably lost.

A Johnson message to Congress on government reorganization is expected soon, it was reported, but the proposed merger won't be tabbed for quick congressional action. Instead, the source said, it probably will be only discussed as part of an effort to build support for a later push. The merger was proposed by the President without prior hint in his January State of the Union message.

Many labor leaders have opposed the plan, a fact confirmed Wednesday, by Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz. But he also said he didn't believe the proposal was dead.
